

ST. ELISABETH'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The Feast of All Saints'

November 5, 2023

10:00 AM

Welcome to Saint Elisabeth's. We are delighted to have you with us today.

This faith community invites all persons to all levels of participation, leadership and decision-making within the church regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity, race, ethnicity, age, physical or mental capacity, education, socioeconomic and marital status. We seek to establish meaningful connections with one another through work and play and worship as we strive to understand God's purpose for us in the church and in the world.

Ordinary Time: Creation

The Season after Pentecost is not actually a season with a single common focus, but is simply the weeks between the Day of Pentecost and the First Sunday of Advent. It is often called “Ordinary Time.” These weeks hold both the slower pace and peaceful quality of summer months and the quicker pace and flurry of activity in the early fall. These are our “ordinary” days, in which we live the Christian faith in our daily lives.

During these weeks, as the liturgical scholar Leonel Mitchell puts it, we celebrate “the time in which we actually live — the period between the Pentecost and the Second Advent.” Two thousand years after the first Pentecost, the church still lives in this “in between” time before the fulfillment of time in Christ’s second coming. You might also hear these weeks called “the long, green season,” referring both to the green color of the vestments and altar hangings for these weeks as well as to the summertime of year in which many of the weeks fall in the northern hemisphere.

After Pentecost we settle into the growing season, nourishing the seeds planted at Easter and putting down roots in our faith.

From Daily Prayer for All Seasons

Entering in...

The Communion of Saints: “Some of the most exciting and fruitful theology today is being described as the “turn toward participation.” Religion as participation is a rediscovery of ... the tradition that so many saints and mystics have spoken of in their own ways. It constantly recognizes that we are a part of something, more than we are observing something or “believing” in something.”

Richard Rohr

Orthopraxy – Practice and action

Be mindful today as we remember those saints who have gone before us that we belong to something that is more than believing in something. How does participating in that “belonging” affect your daily life?

Collect of the Day

Presider God be with you.

Assembly And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

God of all people, from every tribe and language; you called true witnesses who sang your praise, lived your grace and worked for peace. May we share their faith and live by their example, so that we might be a blessing to the hunger of your world; through Jesus Christ, whose body we are.

Assembly Amen.

Word of God

First Reading

Revelation 7:9-17

A Reading from the Book of Revelation.

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

"For this reason they are before the throne of God,
and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.
They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;
for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd,
and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Reader
Assembly

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
Thanks be to God.

Psalter

Psalm 34:1-10, 22

I will bless the LORD at all times; *
 his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
 I will glory in the LORD; *
 let the humble hear and rejoice.

Refrain

Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; *
 let us exalt his Name together.
 I sought the LORD, and he answered me *
 and delivered me out of all my terror.

Refrain

Look upon him and be radiant, *
 and let not your faces be ashamed.
 I called in my affliction and the LORD heard me *
 and saved me from all my troubles.

Refrain

The angel of the LORD encompasses those who fear him, *
 and he will deliver them.
 Taste and see that the LORD is good; *
 happy are they who trust in him!

Refrain

Fear the LORD, you that are his saints, *
 for those who fear him lack nothing.
 The young lions lack and suffer hunger, *
 but those who seek the LORD lack nothing that is good.
 The LORD ransoms the life of his servants, *
 and none will be punished who trust in him.

Refrain

Second Reading

1 John 3:1-3

A Reading from the First Letter of John.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Assembly Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

"Open your ears"

Torah Song

The musical score is written on five staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics are: "I O - pen your ears, O faith - ful peo - ple,". The second staff continues the melody with similar note values. The lyrics are: "o - pen your ears and hear God's word. O - pen your hearts, O". The third staff features a similar melodic line. The lyrics are: "roy - al priest - hood, God has come to you." The word "Fine" is written above the end of this staff. The fourth staff continues the melody. The lyrics are: "God has spo - ken to his peo - ple, Hal - le - lu - jah!". The fifth and final staff concludes the piece. The lyrics are: "And his words are words of wis - dom, Hal - le - lu -".

I O - pen your ears, O faith - ful peo - ple, o - pen your ears and hear God's word. O - pen your hearts, O

Gospel

Matthew 5:1-12

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Assembly Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted."

"Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth."

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled."

"Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy."

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God."

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God."

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

"Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

Prayers of the People

*Prayers for All Saints' Day,
 The Canadian Book of Common Prayer*

Intercessor Watching for a new heaven, waiting for a new earth, we pray to God, saying,
 God, have mercy, and wipe away our tears.

We pray for the church. Transform this broken body into a communion of saints, a company of the faithful, working for good in your world.

God, have mercy,

Assembly Wipe away our tears.

Intercessor We pray for the world. Destroy the shroud of death that is spread over the nations. Replace the rule of wealth and war with your realm of justice and peace.

God, have mercy,

Assembly Wipe away our tears.

Intercessor We pray for this community. Make your home among us; dwell with us in this place.

Let it be a city of heavenly peace, a place of refuge for all.

God, have mercy,

Assembly Wipe away our tears.

Intercessor We pray for loved ones. Soothe those who are suffering.

People

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Presider

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For in the multitude of your saints, you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name.

The assembly may stand or kneel.

Presider

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Assembly

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Presider

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with Elisabeth and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

Assembly

Amen.
